

THE ELLERMAN HOUSE ART & IMPACT JOURNEY

05 – 08 November 2026

An extraordinary four-day experience in Cape Town, where luxury, art, and purpose converge. Hosted at the iconic Ellerman House, this exclusive journey offers unparalleled access to South Africa's vibrant art world while culminating in ArtAngels, the country's most prestigious philanthropic art auction and gala in support of Click Learning.

ARTANGELS & CLICK LEARNING – THE IMPACT

At the heart of this journey lies a dual commitment to art and education.

Click Learning (clicklearning.org) supports under-serviced South African primary schools with digital learning programmes that improve foundational literacy, numeracy, and digital skills. These interventions empower learners to progress at their own pace while creating employment for unemployed youth, who serve as facilitators. Currently, Click reaches 220,000 learners and 950 youth facilitators, helping build a generation equipped for the future.

ArtAngels, now in its second decade, is a landmark annual charity art auction and gala hosted at Ellerman House. It brings together South Africa's leading artists, collectors, and philanthropists in a spirit of celebration and generosity. With Click Learning as the primary beneficiary, the event directly supports education while also reinvesting 10% of proceeds back into the arts through initiatives such as the Ruth Prowse bursary, the Blessing Ngobeni Art Prize, and Art School Africa. In this virtuous cycle, works by emerging artists supported through these programmes have gone on to feature at ArtAngels itself — expanding both opportunity and impact.

Through ArtAngels and Click Learning, every contribution celebrates both the power of art and the promise of education.

Guests will enjoy private gallery tours, intimate studio visits, and behind-the-scenes encounters with leading artists, alongside exceptional dining experiences. Guided by Nicola Harris, CEO of Click Learning, this curated weekend offers a rare chance to engage deeply with both the arts and a cause that is transforming education through technology.
